EDITORS CALLED TO WAR SERVICE.—Since the publication of the November number of the LAW QUARTERLY, two of the Associate Student Editors, Edgar C. Glass and Julien L. Hagen, have volunteered for military service, and one of the Board of Editors, Professor J. R. Trotter, has been called to assist Col. Earl W. Oglebay, State Food Administrator, in work throughout the state. The law faculty, though performing the common advisory duties assumed by all members of the bar at this time and the additional responsibilities arising from the previous resignation of Professor Howard, have very gladly assumed the further duties arising from the considerable rearrangements imposed by Professor Trotter's absence, thus making it possible for him, in a sense a representative of the whole faculty, to do this patriotic service. It is under these pressing circumstances that the January number of the LAW QUARTERLY is issued.
